FunnyAnimatorJimTV, also known by FAJTV or simply “Jim,” is a popular user on scratch.mit.edu, and a well known member of the community, a platform primarily dedicated to users between the ages of 8 and 16. As of the writing of this document, FAJTV is the ninth most popular user on the platform with over 60 thousand followers, a massive influence. Beginning around 2020, Jim began to become active in the Scratch Discord community along with other fellow popular Scratchers. One of the many communities he was active in at the time was a server called “Scratch Central”, along with a couple of other servers. These servers had a primarily user base of people under the age of 18, with a huge chunk of the user base being between the ages of 12-14. The following descriptions detail his deplorable actions during the time period he was active in the Scratch Discord community.

Part I: “Japan Cat” Art

Upon joining Scratch Discord, Jim quickly introduced a character he named “Japan Cat” through a series of artworks. What started innocently enough as cute drawings quickly became graphic. These pieces range from his personal persona going on dates with the character, to depictions of intercourse. These fetishistic artworks were shared frequently by Jim in these online spaces, and he encouraged other users to engage in drawing this character in sexual situations. Many of these individuals were much younger than him. Accompanying this document is a folder containing as many examples of these artworks that could be found.These artworks can be downloaded via the Google Drive link provided below. The following images are graphic.

Part II: Activity around minors

Sharing these images/messages around created an environment where posting this sort of content around minors was acceptable. Although this activity does not follow the traditional definition of grooming, this still resulted in mass harm to individuals and the community. This behavior is and was horrid and is the baseline of Jim’s public persona. However, through the years these actions were written off as nothing more than weird quirk, due to his influence. His behavior was a common pattern seen throughout the Scratch Discord server and pointed to a broader trend of explicit conversations and messages between him and younger members of the community. Below are various messages outlining the way he interacted with people.

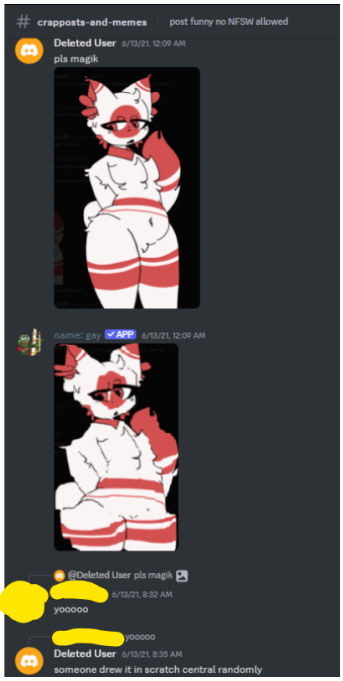
i like how you not only spoiler your weird artwork but just japan cat in general
it's like making people play russian roulette, not knowing whether they'll see japan cat just existing or japan cat existing in a r34 fashion



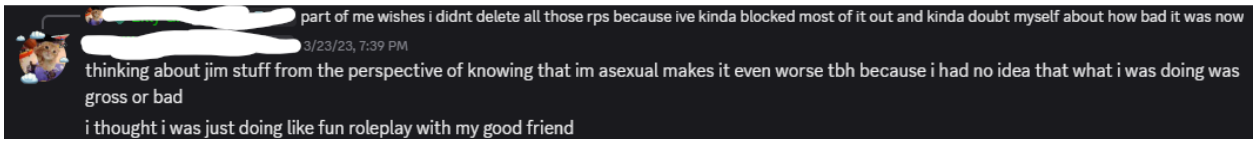
Part III: Grooming

This section is dedicated to allegations and receipts regarding Jim's grooming behaviors beginning in 2021 involving sexual roleplays with minors. The following screenshots have been shared with permission from the victim in question.

The owner of Scratch Central, BoyMcBoy, made a server with no rules around the beginning of 2021 (that will be referred to as the "Anarchy server" from this point onward) for his YouTube channel. This Anarchy server had many of the same members as ScratchCentral considering he was the owner of both. As of writing, it can be assumed this server has since been deleted as noted by one of the last users in the server confirming there were only 2 people remaining in the server, and later adding it "probably got deleted". The evidence that will be presented is the last assumed known screenshots of Jim's activities in the server.

It was in this server where he began to do sexual roleplays with underaged users. The victim (who will be referred to as Jane Doe for privacy reasons) in question was 14 years old at the time of this following roleplay exchange while Jim was 17. While Jim wasn't technically a legal adult at this time, he was aware that the victim was in some way, younger than him. Jane Doe engaged in the roleplay using a "Japan Cat" roleplay bot. WARNING: THE FOLLOWING IMAGE(S) MAY BE DISTURBING

Jim's behavior of roleplay was common and he disproportionately engaged in it those who were significantly less known than him. Jane Doe fits into this category. Before this interaction, Jane Doe and Jim had commonly engaged in roleplay and had been forming a friendship for the last three months leading up to this conversation. However, this was one of the first exchanges where it got to this explicit extent. Jane Doe reflected on this in a series of venting messages.



[redacted] part of me wishes i didnt delete all those rps because ive kinda blocked most of it out and kinda doubt myself about how bad it was now [redacted] 3/23/23, 7:39 PM thinking about jim stuff from the perspective of knowing that im asexual makes it even worse tbh because i had no idea that what i was doing was gross or bad i thought i was just doing like fun roleplay with my good friend

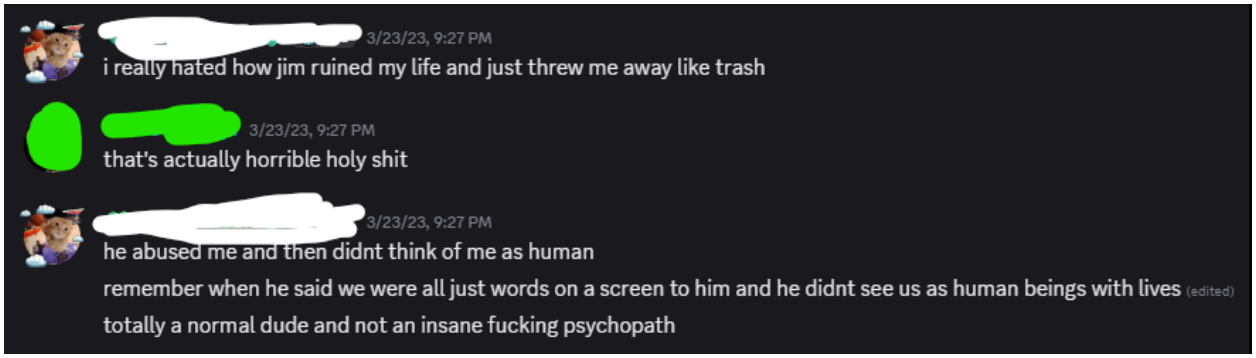
Jim's building a relationship with Jane Doe placed a false sense of trust into her as she believed her relationship with Jim was genuine. As she said herself she believed she "was just doing…fun roleplay with my good friend." We now know this to be untrue.



3/23/23, 9:27 PM
i really hated how jim ruined my life and just threw me away like trash
3/23/23, 9:27 PM
that's actually horrible holy shit
3/23/23, 9:27 PM
he abused me and then didnt think of me as human remember when he said we were all just words on a screen to him and he didnt see us as human beings with lives (edited) totally a normal dude and not an insane fucking psychopath

Jim's relationship with Jane Doe was extremely shallow as she later discovered. Jim's apathy in the relationships he was forming with others online proved to be harmful to those he was talking to as can be seen above. The carelessness he showed to others online proved to be toxic and it genuinely hurt people. In fact, it could be said that at the time, his roleplays were purely for sexual pleasure, not for a longing of actual companionship.

Thinking about Jim fucking disgusts me
I remember while I was completely cut off from you guys for a short period of time
He friended me just to send me Softcore Porn
3/23/23, 9:21 PM
thats so gross ugh
i remember this one time when we still did those roleplays he told me i wasnt doing it well enough and pretty much asked me to be more sexual and explicit one of the few things i still remember from those it still messes me up alot i remember that one rp where he had the cat eat the dress and i remember i found a scratch sprite i made for him based on that on one of my alt acounts i remember this one time when we still did those roleplays he
3/23/23, 9:26 PM
after he told me this he started doing roleplays with other server members

Jim's pattern of sexual behavior in roleplay is shown above. It could be seen that Jim had gotten too comfortable with his victim and was now asking directly regarding making the roleplays more sexual in nature. This in turn shows one of many abusive sides to his behavior and how it exactly affected the victims, that being his general attraction towards making roleplays with anyone who would, even if that meant forming relationships with those who were interested. Jim's reckless attitude with his roleplays led to genuine sexual distress and identity issues for years afterwards. WARNING: THE FOLLOWING IMAGE(S) MAY BE DISTURBING

I remember when those roleplays happened I would get precum and I even talked to Jim about it and I don't know why it happened it's caused me a lot of stress and confusion over my sexuality, I think it was just my body reacting out of the sexual nature of the conversations but I don't know. I would talk about being horny alot because I thought it was just normal but it wasn't and knowing that I'm asexual and I was when it happened hurts and confuses me so much.
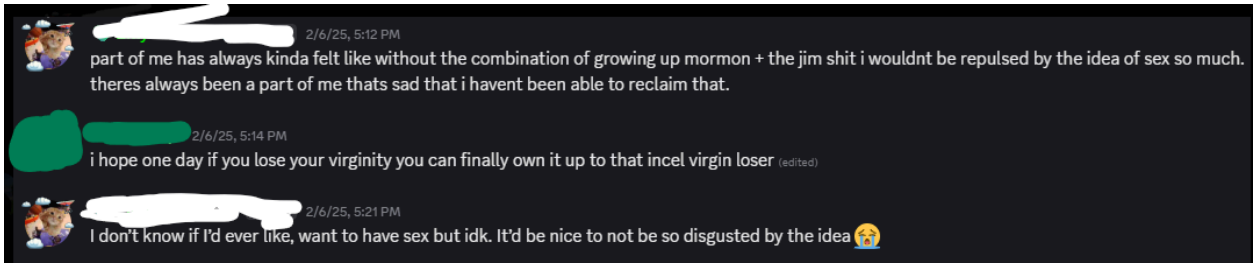
3/23/23, 10:18 PM
This may feel like a sociopathic asf thing to say
But even after someone apologizes for shit that damaged me in a way or another, I still get slight mental anguish from it
3/23/23, 10:18 PM
Again about the age regression thing
I understand where you were coming from
3/23/23, 10:19 PM
I know that I am asexual and I know that I don't like sex but then this happened and it causes me to question myself and not be able to get a grip on who I am



2/6/25, 5:12 PM
part of me has always kinda felt like without the combination of growing up mormon + the jim shit i wouldnt be repulsed by the idea of sex so much. theres always been a part of me thats sad that i havent been able to reclaim that.
2/6/25, 5:14 PM
i hope one day if you lose your virginity you can finally own it up to that incel virgin loser (edited)
2/6/25, 5:21 PM
I don't know if I'd ever like, want to have sex but idk. It'd be nice to not be so disgusted by the idea 😭

The mental scarring was difficult to heal and was a process that took years for the victim to cope, reconcile, reflect, and learn from. The victim's sexual identity was in question for them after interacting with Jim and it wasn't easy to deal with. It's hard for a victim to come out with a story this traumatizing and personal so for that we genuinely appreciate their openness to providing us with these screenshots retelling the story of how they were groomed by FunnyAnimatorJimTV. These are situations that we could never understand and victims need all the help and community they deserve and we should support the victims wherever they happen to be.

As of writing today, Jim hasn't responded to requests to comment on these allegations.
